PITTSBURG, July 21.—There is nothing special to note in the situation of the Penn sylvania road this morning. Between one and two hundred strikers performed guard-duty last night and patrolled the road from the Union depot to East Liberty stock-yards. An attempt was made about midnight to move a train from the outer depot, but as no engineer could be found willing to run the engine the attempt had to be abandoned. The strikers say it will be impossible for the railroad corapany to obtain men to run the engines. They say they will offer no resist. An attempt was made about midnight to and to hit every independent head that shows engines. They say they will offer no resist-ance to soldiers, but say they vill board trains at all stations and draw coupling-pins and cut trains loose, and thus prevent the departure of all freight. Adjutant-General Latta, of the State militia, arrived at forty-five minutes past two o'clock this morning. The first division, eighteen hundred strong, including the Key-Hayee, stating that the depot had been fired stone battery, and the Sixth division, under command of General Brenton, are expected o arrive this morning. The railroad officials hope by thronging the tracks with the mili-tary to awe the strikers and open the block-ade without a conflict. The strike on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago road stops all shipping over the Pittsburg roads, as these roads use the Fort Wayne tracks for some distance below this city. The freight trains on the Connellsville branch of the Baltimore and Ohio road were stopped last night, it is said, by strikers from other roads, and the trains returned to the depot. No trains GREENBRIER WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, will be sent out over this road to-day. It is not definitely known whether the Pittsburg, Cincinnati and St. Louis Pan-Handle route s such that the road has no outlet for freight t was reported early this morning that the Allegheny Valley road men will join the strike before noon to-day.

When interviewed, they decline to express themselves clearly, but do not deny the cor rectness of the report. Passenger travel and

2 p.m.-The situation up to this time practically unchanged. The Pan-Handle road is moving local freights, and if obstruc-tions on the Pennsylvania railroad were removed, could move through freight without difficulty. The strikers on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago road were joined by two hundred men from the company's shops this morning. There has been no in-crease of labor on this road, but the strike is wholly against the ten per cent. reduction which went into effect June 15th. A meeting of the Fort Wayne strikers was held at the roundhouse this morning, when the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, by the train-men and employer of the Pennsylvania company and the leased lines, in convention assembled, That we will, in no wise, interfere with the passenger traffic or with the United States mail trains. Resolved, That we agree to furnish a full crew of men free of energe to the railway company to promptly move to the city al freights now in the yard intended for Pittsburg firms to the Daquesne depot.

The sheriff, with his posse and the military, will at once proceed to the outer depot and endeavor to a ke the arrests. The strikers are congregated at that point, and the result is anxiously awaited. A dreadful riot occurred at the outer depot of the T. railroad about an hour ago. Seven dead have been taken from the scene, and it is not known how many yet are to be gathered up. The firing was done by the Philadelphia militia. One of their own men and one of the Pittsburg soldiers are killed. The bystanders all say the fire was unprevyized. The excitement is tremendous. A large body of men left for the Allegheny argued a few moments ago, with the avowed senal a few moments ago, with the avowed be used in repelling the militia.

At twenty minutes to four o'clock the Philadelphia troops left the Union depot for the scene of the disturbances. At the Twenty-eighth street crossing, marching out along the track and preceded by the sheriff and his posse expecting to faul in an effort to lisperse the strikers, the sheriff would enleavor to make arrests and call upon the military for assistance. This was understood and a conflict was expected. They arrived at Twenty-eighth street shortly before five o'clock. The railroad tracks at that point being completely blocked with strikers, the Black Hussars of Philadelphia were ordered to clear the railroad crossing, but not being able to do so, another company was ordered to their assistance the military advanced with fixed bayonets, but were met with a shower of stones and misslies from the crowd. They opened fire on the crowd indiscriminately and in rapid succession, the crowd retreating toward East Liberty street. Pittsburg, July 22, 2 a.m.—It is difficult to get any reliable facts at this hour. The entire eastern end of the city is at the mercy of the mob, which is hourly increasing. Anarchy and violence has taken possession of the city, and the mob-law reigns supreme. The Pennsylvania track, for a distance of a quarter of a mile westward from the outer depot is a sheet of flame. The mob began to push the burning care toward the round-house some time ago. Their intention is to destroy the extensive shops of the company and the Union

Their intention is to destroy the extensive shops of the company and the Union depot building. The number of people slain since dark is very large, and the exact number will not be accessible for several days. The summing up of the riot at Twenty-eighth street this evening shows a total of twenty killed and twenty-nine wounded. The hill-side was dotted with the dead and dying. The large seven-story Fort Wayne building on the corner of Tenth street is reported to be in flames, and by morning the destruction will be complete. BALTIMORE, July 21 .- During the fire a ernor Carroll sent a dispatch to President Hayee, stating that the depot had been fired by a much which was beyond the control of his forces, and asking the assistance of the United States authorities. Early this morning a teleg ram, addressed to General Barry, commanding at Fort M'Henry, was received through the s. cnal office by Governor Carroll, from the secret ery of war, in answer to his application to the President for troops. The telegram is as follows: "The secretary of war directs you (General Barry) to report to the governor of Maryland with your guns and all your men, to act according to his orders." The message was sent as received to Fort M'Henry by a mounted orderly, who returned with word that the troops are in readess at a moment's notice. The firing at the railroad was caused by a mob attempting to interfere with the firemen. The mob cut the hose and put out the fire of engine No. 2. and fired upon the police, who returned the fire and drove the mob back. The mail train for Baltimore and Washington and the west was blockaded at Cam-den station. Members of the Fifth regiment who arrived at the armory after the main body had left started for Camden depot, but were attacked on Howard street with stones, and some of them hurt. They afterward re turned to the armory. The police commissioners have issued a order, in view of the prevailing riot, to close all bar-rooms and other places where liquor is usually sold.

Martial law is threatened No trains arrived at or left Camden station after eight o'clock last evening. There was no interruption on the Baltimore and Poto-

The meeting was composed of six hundred men, embracing firemen, brakemen, engineers, yardmen, etc. No definite action was taken, but a committee was app. inted to draft resolutions, which are to be presented at another meeting to be held to-morrow evening. This committee is expected to set forth the views of the employes of the different roads, and will probably demand the restoration of the wages previous to the late reduction. If this is not acceded to the men will strike. HARRISBURG.

The Toledo and Wabash men took no active part in the meeting, that road not having made any reduction of wages, but if a strike on the other roads is decided upon, they may ent that General Simpson, general superin-tendent of the Vandalia road, has been notified that unless the late reduction of ten per cent is removed by noon on Monday, the men will strike. There seems to be no doubt but that a strike on the Ohio and Mississippi road will be inaugurated at noon Monday. The employes of the Union depot and transit company of this city will probably be the first to join the strike on this side of the river, they being much incensed at the recent ac-

The crowd reassembled in a few moments and openly discussed the feasibility of breaking into the Camden station. The crowd instantly started in a run, the police following and discharging blank cartridges. About fifty of the rioters in Little Paca street began tearing up the pavement, but the police scattered them with a round of blank cartridges. All those inclined to be disorderly were arrested and taken to the Camden station. Of sixty arrested none were railroad men. regular schedule time. No interference with BALTIMORE, July 21 .- At half past cleve o'clock a special train from Washington reached Camden Station with one hundred manding. Finding a crowd at the depot be joined the light battery at Lucas Point and a crowd collected on Howard street, ner Lombard. The police charged them and general skirmish followed. A number of shots were fired but the police prevailed enty-seven, and of the independence of the United States of America, the one hundred ing about one hundred in all. Between ten and eleven o'clock a large crowd of riotors collected on Carey street, near the workshops of the company, at Mount Clair. They wer several vessels in that vicinity to this city.

This force, about five hundred men, will arrive to-morrow.

BUFFALO. BUFFALO, July 21.—The strike does not extend beyond the Buffalo and Western Susquehanna division. A special train from Attica ran to near Hornelisville at six o'clock this evening. To-night the regular accom-modation train to Buffalo and Hornellsville started, but at East Buffalo the fireman was induced to leave his post, and the train was stopped. Another fireman was substituted, but when the train neared Attica a number of the strikers from Buffalo, who had taken the Central road to Batavia via the Attica branch to Attica, stopped him there and stopped all travel further cast. The strikers are assisted by strong reinforcements from The troops arrived almost simultaneously at Cumberland. My instructions have been seventy men, was dispatched from here at midnight to Attica. The ring-leader of the

> MARTINSBURG Martinsburg, July 21.—About fifty the men who went west on the trains returned on the Cincinnati express train early this norning from Cumberland, where they were compelled to leave their duties. The express rom the west was more than two hours be hind time. It appears uscless to start any more freight trains west until a sufficien force is collected at Cumberland their passage beyond that point. All other points where obstructions are likely to occur are sufficiently guarded. News from point between Keyser and Grafton is that the mer willing to work are deterred by their wives and daughters. Careful inquiry discovers the fact that comparatively very few train men have taken any part in the offensive demon

Hornellsville, July 21.—It is asserted o'clock this evening, as the troops were not armed and no provision made for such an emergency. The city is full of rumors of a the flaglenders of the strikers, and that they are to be taken to New York city. A strike along the whole line of the Lake Shore, but at this time—half-past three afternoon yard and buildings. Four more companies LOUISVILLE, July 21.—There is intense excitement here over the railroad strike. Receiver M'Leod, of the Short Line road, has ssued an order for a reduction of ten pe cent. in wages, to take effect August 1st. At a meeting of workingmen to-night commit tees were appointed to wait on railroad officials and accertain what is going to be done. President Standiford, of the Loui-ville and Nasiville road, says no reduction will be made on that line.
